- ❑ Three store openings in Denmark in Q1.
- ❑ Continued demand uncertainty in the market

- ❑ Strong foothold in B2B in line with the long-term strategy
  - ❑ B2B sales offers long-term customer relationships and sales pipeline stability, but at lower average sales prices and margins
  - ❑ B2B market challenged as builders are reluctant to start new projects
- ❑ B2C market is starting to show promise with orders rising and a more positive market sentiment
  - ❑ TCM is increasing focus on B2C using freed up resources from the challenged B2B market
- ❑ +10% Growth in B2C order intake in Denmark in Q1
- ❑ B2C orders are generally more profitable and on average bigger than B2B orders

- ❑ Norway represents 20% of group revenue in Q1, with AUBO playing a big role in Norway
- ❑ 10 Svane shops
- ❑ 55 AUBO shop-in-shops
- ❑ 24 Nettoline shop-in-shops
- ❑ Organic decline in revenue of 27% in the quarter as the Norwegian market has seen a sharp slowdown as higher uncertainty and interest rates have dampened demand
- ❑ Together with Optimera TCM is increasing focus on the B2C market.
